

The George Hallas Memorial FORCC Scholarships

Description

The Fellowship of Orthodox Churches of Connecticut (FORCC) seeks to unite the Orthodox Churches in Connecticut to work together to promote the Orthodox Faith throughout the state. As a part of this mission, the Fellowship offers scholarships to two qualified candidates each year. These scholarships are dedicated to the memory of one of the founding members of FORCC, the late George Hallas.

The George Hallas Memorial FORCC Scholarships are offered to two young Orthodox Christians entering college or university for the first time and who are parishioners of any of the member Churches of FORCC. With a value of $1,000.00 each, they recognize the academic achievement and parish involvement of the recipients.

A special Scholarship Committee is appointed each year by the FORCC governing board to examine all applications received and award the scholarships. All applications and any accompanying information is kept in the strictest confidence.
